FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The Agreement for the establishment of South Asian University provides that the South Asian University shall be located at Delhi. Initially, the Ministry of External Affairs of the Government of India provided 100 acres of land (on lease), which is dedicated to the people of South Asia. As part of India's commitment to the South Asian Association for Regional Co-operation (SAARC) in discharging its responsibilities in a non-reciprocal manner, India would be prepared to provide funds over and above its assessed contribution for the smooth establishment and maintenance of the University.

Further, the said Agreement provides that the University shall be a non-profit public-private partnership, which will seek support from each of the national governments of Member States and from other sources but will be autonomous and accountable to its Board of trustees or governors. Accordingly, the University funding is based on the assessed contributions among the Member States in addition to benefactions, donations and gifts received in accordance with the regulations made by the Governing Board as per the general norms and practices of the SAARC.
